

« SEVENS ACADEMY » Section Sportive Haut Niveau RUGBY à 7

Located at the « Lycée International de VALBONNE » Sophia Antipolis (a state school) (Nice Board of Education)

<http://www.civfrance.com>

Academic programme : leads to the French baccalaureate L, ES,S or OIB . Five international programmes are offering the international version of the French baccalaureate: Anglo-American, German, Italian, Spanish and Russian.

Admission and enrolment in 2° and 1° as of September 2009.

Entrance test arranged in 2° (OIB)

Some Sections are co-run (Anglo-American section, German Section) by Boards of parents and need annual fees

Curricular Sport : first sport activity in France enabling girls and boys to practice Rugby Sevens at a high level. It will soon be an Olympic game.

Two training periods a week offered: Tuesday Thursday from 5pm to 7pm

Plus one with the rugby league of the school every Wednesday from 1.30pm to 4.30pm.

Sport activities: offensive and defensive principles of Rugby Sevens. Individual bearings as well as collective ones, individual technique, mind and body preparation. Competition, tournaments...

Close partnership with IRB Sevens, FIRA-AER European Sevens, FFR and the French Riviera and local department Committees.

Admission applications to be sent to the school:

Please submit:

Details of schooling, school reports covering the last school year.

Samples of recent sport schooling and activities (profile of sport performance, different posts : local leagues, regional or national ones)

Covering letter in support of the candidateship

Applications to be submitted by June 20 2009

Accommodation: Boarding school opened all year around (week-ends and holidays included, except Xmas). Full board 700 euros a month. (double-room)

Admission held by a commission presided over by the Headmaster will examine applications by June and retain 20 boys and 20 girls for the school year 2009 2010.