

W.I.N. Project

ANTIBES seminar programme - 24 to 26 November 2008

24 nov 09

9h/12h
13h15/16h45

Opening Who's Who ?
Project Review

Alain BRULANT President of GRETA Sophia Antipolis
Cross-Introduction of each partner
Challenges, Aims, perspectives , methodology and means

Round Table :
French Case study

Social and professional practices for Fitness activities in France
Approach of different professionalization paths
(Medical and paramedical careers, STAPS and Youth&Sports paths, Paths through associations and trade-union organizations)
Synthesis of talks and debates on the French Fitness situation.

Workshop :
Common frame for national case studies

Partner workshop for extracting from French case study :

- a) essential characteristics and significant practice elements.
- b) common categories, constant and variable analysis
- c) common framework to be used for each national partnership case study.

25 nov 09

9h/12h30
14h/16h45

Fitness Standards, Qualifications and professional organizations in Europe

Expert talk about European standards of professional qualifications, different levels of qualification in process and professional organizations in France and at European Level.

Debate with participants and guests (Fitness company managers)

26 nov 09

9 h/11h

Long project programming of partners' activities

Common framework for project assessment
WEB site Home Page presentation. The presentation of the platform for collaborative activities
Follow-up of the launching seminar